

Let it be on me!

EUROPEAN RESPONSIBILITY of Drinks Distributors / Green

Objective

To raise awareness of responsible consumption among young people.

Description

Between 17 September and 21 November 2018, young people aged 18-25 were encouraged to take part in the competition. The aim was to encourage participants to think about responsibility and how it plays a part in everyday life including responsible alcohol consumption.

Participants could upload a short story, a photo or a video to the initiative website: www.astopanomou.com. A jury of content creators and members of the Responsibility Alliance selected 3 winners from each category. The winners were announced on 12 December during a special ceremony.

The first 30 valid and unique entries won a gift voucher worth 30 €. Each of the categories had first, second and third place winners. First place winners received a scholarship for photography, video or creative writing seminars and a gift voucher worth € 500. Second place winners received a Motorola mobile phone and the third-place winners a € 200 gift voucher from Public stores.
